

Everyone in Vladivostok walks along this street. Everyone passes this railway station but nobody notices it mainly because there is nothing interesting in it. In my opinion, this station keeps its own history and is very special to older generations. My mother told me how she arrived at this station every morning to get to the university. The life of many people, one way or another, is connected to this place.

Varvara Kurdakova

This street is called 'Admiral Fokin Street'. While walking along this street you can see fantastic, simply wonderful view of the sky. Also, beautiful buildings are lined up, so this makes the view even much better. These nice views attract many people to walk along the street.

Gitae Yang

When you go the hill, you can see all the view of the center and the Golden Bridge, which is a landmark of Vladivostok. I love this place because I can feel its active and unique atmosphere
Jung Gawon

In this photo you may see an old, desolated church, but it's not a usual one. I was baptized there 15 years ago. So, when I'm walking past the church in Sadgorod, I feel that it's a small important part of my history and my life, that I should never forget.

Sonya Samoilenko

The city of fogs – it keeps its mystery, its illusions... Vladivostok enchants both tourists and citizens. It's a city of fogs and dreams...My city...
Konstantin Zorin

Street Art
It speaks to me
Tells me about the secrets,
The history, the culture
Of the city around us.
Don't cover it up, share it with other people.
Take it in, let it inspire you.

Emma Holm-Olsen

Emma Holm-Olsen

"You are always looking at her. You look at her too much. It is dangerous to look at people in such fashion. Something terrible may happen." Oscar Wilde, Salomé.

Voloshina Maria

My favorite part of the day is early morning. That morning I was going up the stairs and I saw unnaturally pink light coming from the window. The sunrise was changing every minute. I think that was the most beautiful sunrise I've ever seen.

Alena Demenok

The view of the Russian Bridge from Tokarevskaya Koshka, which is a favourite walking place for many citizens. The lighthouse is also located there.

Timofey Taran

This picture was taken from the terrace of the cafe in Maliy Gum. I like this place because the center of our city can be seen well, also you can take some good pictures from there.

Zlata Loeva

This picture was taken in the very center of the city but not everyone can tell where it is located. I like this place because it is so near to all places where tourists walk but still unknown to them.

Ekaterina Prokopenko

I like this picture and this place just because you look at birds and you can feel free.
Like they are.

Ekaterina Prokopenko

This is Central Department store (the old yard). It's one of my favorite places in our city. I like to spend my free time there, hanging out with friends or just chilling there alone, enjoying the atmosphere.

Sofia Zvenyatskaya

This place is located in Sadgorod. If you walk around in the forest, you may find lots of stone tunnels like in the picture. It might be flooded or overgrown with grass, that's why it looks really mystically and fantastic like you go into a fairytale. When I was small I used to say: 'Echo lives here'.

Sonya Samoilenko

This is a cable car, which is located in the city center. If you go by it, you can see the most beautiful side of Vladivostok.

Jung Gawon

This place is located near hotel Hyundai.

This statue is made of some metal details, which probably used to be details from old things. Perhaps it was made to protect the house nearby or to create the anti-lonely atmosphere because it looks like the statue is moving. Also, this statue appears as an embodiment of modern art.

Ekaterina Drozdova

When you walk down Vladivostok streets, you can see a variety of street art, which is witty, beautiful, has a good, sometimes satirical sense. It can be the real charm to find some new street art, walking along the streets and taking photos.

Jung Gawon

The sunset over Amur Bay

The fog is covering the city

Polina Shkلياeva

Funicular is one of Vladivostok attractions. It's a unique kind of transport, which exists only in two cities – Sochi and Vladivostok. It has been working since 1962. Funicular is located on the Eagle Hill and faces The Golden Horn Bay. Here are some facts about it:

1. The length of the railway - 183 metres
2. The travelling time - 1,5 minutes
3. Working hours – 7am- 9 pm.
5. Fare – 3 kopecks (1980), 6 roubles (2010), 8 roubles ( 2012), 9 roubles ( 2014), 11 roubles (2015 ), 12 roubles (2016 )

Aleksandra Kafanova, Ilona Hliustova

The Monument to the Fighters for Soviet Power is very dear to me as reminds us of our heroic past.

Maria Shtelnikova

The world is full of beauty.
Just notice it.
Alena Demenok

The sunset. The photo is made on board the ship. Rynda Bay.
Larisa Babakohian

"Ocean" is a cinema in Vladivostok. It's the largest cinema in the Far East. It was built in 1969. The cinema is located in the place liked by many citizens, quite near the seashore. Preparations for its construction began in September 1963. The original plan of the cinema had 1350 seats but now it's much bigger.

Nowadays "Ocean" is the best cinema in Vladivostok because it has IMAX and the ticket costs only 200 RUB. On holidays I often go there with my friends.

Krasnoshapka Ivan